A Pamphlet for the People: On the Question of a National Housing Trust

The Proposal [Proposal Text]

The Anti-Federalist Objection [Anti-Federalist Text]

The Federalist Defense [Federalist Text]

Closing to the People Here then lies the question before you, citizens: - Will you side with the Anti-Federalists, who warn that such an amendment courts despotism and diminishes property? - Or with the Federalists, who hold that it secures liberty, strengthens independence, and fulfills the promise of the Revolution?

Judge wisely, for upon your judgment rests not merely the fate of this proposal, but the character of the Republic we bequeath to posterity.
